Their individual income shall serve as their share capital that can be withdrawn right after graduation or shall be withdrawn at the right time. They will be trained in e-bookkeeping and safe online business transactions using the website without using debit or credit card.

The student-entrepreneurs' innovative products shall be posted in the official website @ <https://sites.google.com/depd.gov.ph/mil> that I have developed, maintained and supervised. This income generating project through online business is definitely run by student-entrepreneurs.
